RE: Complaint of Troy Henderson, ACRB File #14-062

Dear Chief Turner:

Please be advised that the Atlanta Citizen Review Board (ACRB) has concluded its investigation and adjudication of the complaint filed by Mr. Troy Henderson alleging that on February 10, 2014, Atlanta Police Officer Jeffrey Crenshaw (Unique ID #0691) engaged in excessive force when he slapped and punched him without provocation.

The Board determined that the excessive force allegation against the officer be assigned a finding of Not Sustained.

During the course of the investigation, it was revealed that the assisting officer, Torrance Profit spent a significant amount of time with Mr. Henderson during this incident; however, there is no report documenting that transpired during that time spent with him. The Board is recommending that there be a requirement that assisting officers provide documented statements in the form of a supplemental report detailing what the officer observed, heard and actions taken by the officer during an incident.

The file is available for review upon request. The ordinance requires that the Chief respond in writing regarding which recommendations are accepted, rejected, or will be implemented with modifications within thirty (30) days of the submission of a recommendation for action by the Board to the Chief (see Sec. 2-2211(O) of the Ordinance 07-0-0141).

Sincerely,
